DBSKKV-D, Weekly activity report from 03.11.2023 to 09.11.2023

- Activity 1: Over the course of November 2nd to November 3rd, 2023, the NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli took the lead in organizing a transformative event at the College of Fisheries in Shirgaon, Ratnagiri—the Dermatoglyphics Multiple Intelligence Test (DMIT). This initiative aimed to unravel the unique cognitive strengths and potential of individuals by examining their fingerprints and identifying multiple intelligences. An impressive turnout of 50 students from the College of Fisheries in Shirgaon, Ratnagiri, actively participated in the insightful training sessions. The DMIT not only provided a nuanced understanding of the students' inherent abilities but also facilitated a deeper comprehension of their distinct learning styles. This event, hosted by NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli, underscores a commitment to holistic education and personal growth among the engaged students at the College of Fisheries in Shirgaon, Ratnagiri.
- Activity 2: The NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli played a pivotal role in organizing a successful Personality Development Training at the College of Fisheries in Ratnagiri, spanning from November 2nd to 5th, 2023. An impressive turnout of 60 students from the College of Fisheries actively participated, benefitting from the enriching program. This impactful initiative extended to the College of Horticulture in Mulde, where, from November 6th to 8th, 2023, another 60 students from the College of Horticulture immersed themselves in the personality development training organized by NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli, marking yet another achievement in fostering personal and professional growth.
- Activity 3: Fifteen students from Dr. Balasaheb Sawant Konkan Krishi Vidyapeeth (DBSKKV) in Dapoli are presently participating in an International Training program at the University Putra in Malaysia, organized by the National Agricultural Higher Education Project (NAHEP) IDP DBSKKV Dapoli. During their stay, they engaged in a session on Water Management and Irrigation, led by Dr. Khairul Hafiz. Additionally, they benefited from a session on Seeding Technology conducted by Prof. Uma. As part of their educational experience, the students also had the opportunity to explore MRANTI Park, enriching their practical knowledge and understanding of agriculture.

- Activity 4: Dr. Navin Kumar Jain and Sh. Kumar Rajesh visited NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli on November 7th and 8th, 2023, a momentous occasion for digital education in agriculture. They explored cutting-edge facilities, and the highlight was the "Premier Launch of Digi Tech Education in Agriculture" on November 8th, chaired by Hon. Vice Chancellor Dr. Sanjay Bhawe. The program included the launch of virtual education modules, drone simulation, business courses, and the KKV Vishwa application. Commending the institution's work, the visit signifies a significant leap in integrating technology into agricultural education, establishing NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli as a trailblazer.
- Activity 5: Fifteen students from Dr. Balasaheb Sawant Konkan Krishi Vidyapeeth (DBSKKV) in Dapoli are currently immersed in an enriching International Training program at Can Tho University in Vietnam, facilitated by NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli. Their educational journey has involved a hands-on Practical session on Purple Non-Sulfur Bacteria, providing them with valuable insights. Additionally, the students have participated in sessions covering Cropping Systems in Vietnam and the Hydroponic Cultivation of cucumber, keel, and tomato. To further enhance their learning experience, they explored the Learning Resource Centre, contributing to a holistic understanding of agricultural practices in the Vietnamese context.
- Activity 6: Eight students and two faculty members from Dr. Balasaheb Sawant Konkan Krishi Vidyapeeth (DBSKKV) in Dapoli are currently participating in a transformative International Training program at Michigan State University, USA, organized by NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli. Their activities have included specialized training in the Department of Plant Pathology at MSU, immersing them in cutting-edge knowledge. A dynamic Journal Club meeting addressed a topic introduced by Fayeann, fostering engaging discussions, with Dr. Linda delivering a comprehensive and insightful explanation. Furthermore, the group visited the Department of Plant, Soil, and Microbial Sciences, where they interacted with Dr. Alejandro Rojas, delving into discussions on soil-borne fungi and related topics, enhancing their global perspective on agricultural practices.
- Activity 7: Shrikrishna Ghangurde, Founder and Director of Aave Broilers, Nashik, commended the innovative and creative digital education initiatives during his visit to NAHEP IDP DBSKKV Dapoli on November 7, 2023. Impressed by the strides in technological education, he acknowledged the institution's commitment to fostering learning through digital means.
- Activity 8: Dr. Rajesh Thokal and Dr. Atul Mohod, both Co-Principal Investigators of the NAHEP IDP at DBSKKV Dapoli, actively participated in the 57th ISAE International Convention hosted at UAS Raichur, Karnataka, from 6th to 8th November 2023, showcasing their commitment to advancing agricultural research and education.
